CAMP FAQs:

FOOD AND HOUSING

Housing will be in the residence halls on the University of Washington campus. Rooms are standard dorm rooms with 2 twin beds. Linens and pillows will be provided. Dorms rooms are NOT AIR CONDITIONED so a small fan would be recommended for campers. Athletes will have the opportunity to specify a roommate during the registration process, or we will choose an age-appropriate roommate for them. Campers will be provided with 3 meals a day. Breakfast and dinner will be served in the residence halls, and lunch will typically be at our training locations. Day Campers will be provided lunch, and are also welcome to attend our opening session and Pizza Night Sunday evening July 8th.

SUPERVISION AND CONDUCT

Campers will be supervised at all time to ensure a secure and safe environment. Any misconduct by a camper is grounds for immediate dismissal from the camp without a refund. Drugs, alcohol and smoking are strictly prohibited and our staff will implement a strict, zero-tolerance policy when dealing with these issues. Please see the list of camp rules attached.

MEDICAL

Any medical conditions must be reported to our medical staff upon check-in. Washington Track Camps will not be held responsible for administering medications, but can house and store medications during camp. Please be aware that Washington Track staff will not administer medications of any type (prescription or over-the-counter) to camp participants of any age.

AIRPORT PICK-UP AND DROP OFF INFO

Washington Track Camps does not provide transportation to/from camp from the airport. Those that fly into Seattle should arrange for transportation to the University of Washington Campus. Here are several options for airport transportation.
